Whitehall, July 14.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable William Wyndham Grenville, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Council of Dominica.

Moſt Gracious Sire,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of Dominica, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, and to offer our humble Congratulation on the happy Event of your Majeſty's Recovery, and to aſſure your Majeſty, that during the diſtreſsful Interval of your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition no Claſs or Deſcription of your Subjects felt more Sorrow, or on your Majeſty's Recovery, more real Joy, than the Council of this Iſland.

Conſcious of the Bleſſings all your Majeſty's Subjects derive from a benevolent and patriot Sovereign, we congratulate your Majeſty on being again enabled to reſume your perſonal Attention to the public Concerns of your Kingdoms, and on the Wiſdom of your Parliament, manifeſted by the Meaſures they had taken for the Honor and Intereſts of your Crown, and the Security and good Government of your Majeſty's Dominions.

We cannot omit to expreſs our humble Acknowledgments of the Goodneſs of the Almighty in reſtoring your Majeſty to the anxious Wiſhes of your loyal Subjects; and we ſhall offer our Prayers for a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Health, as the Source of domeſtic Comfort to your Royal Family and of univerſal Happineſs to all your Subjects.

Alex. Stewart, Preſident of the Council.

Council Chamber, Dominica,
May 6, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by John Orde, Eſq; Governor.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of your Majeſty's dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects, the Houſe of Repreſentatives of your Iſland of Dominica.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, loyal and obedient Subjects, the Repreſentatives of the People of the Iſland of Dominica, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne, and with Hearts full of Gratitude to the beneficent and protecting Care of Heaven, we congratulate our Country and every Branch of your Majeſty's moſt Illuſtrious Family on the happy Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health.

Far removed from the Country that is bleſſed with your Majeſty's Preſence, we are not leſs attached to your Majeſty's Perſon, nor leſs grateful for the Benefits we enjoy under the mild and juſt Government of our moſt valuable Conſtitution; and through the Bounty of Divine Providence, manifeſted in your Majeſty's Recovery, we are now enabled to contemplate with the moſt heartfelt Solicitude, a long, very long, Duration to your Majeſty's Reign, a Life full of Years and Glory, the bright Example of which will we hope continue to bleſs us in your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Deſcendants till Time ſhall be no more.

May the ſame kind Providence that has granted our Prayers for the Recovery of your Majeſty's Health continue to ſhower down its Bleſſings on your Majeſty, your Royal Conſort our moſt amiable Queen, and every Branch of your Illuſtrious Family.

John Gillon, Speaker pro Tempore.

Houſe of Aſſembly, May 7, 1789.

[Delivered by George Roſe, Eſq; Agent.]

Unto the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Society of Writers to your Signet in Scotland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Society of Writers to your Signet in Scotland, beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity of our firſt General Meeting after your Majeſty's happy Recovery from your late ſevere and dangerous Indiſpoſition to approach the Throne with Sentiments of the moſt ſincere Loyalty and Affection, and to congratulate your Majeſty upon the complete Re-eſtabliſhment of your Health.

That the Divine Providence may be pleaſed long to preſerve the Life and Happineſs of that Sovereign who has declared it to be His Glory to make the Laws the only Rule of His Government, is the fervent Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,
The Society of Writers to your Signet in Scotland.

John Davidſon, D. K.
by Appointment of the General Meeting of the Society.

Paris, July 12.

His Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty has appointed the Baron de Breteuil to be Preſident of the Council of Finances, in the Room of M. Necker; the Duke de la Vauguyon, Secretary of State for the Department of Foreign Affairs, in the Room of M. de Montmorin; and the Marſhal de Broglie, to be Miniſter for the War Department.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that on Sunday the 28th Day of June laſt, between Nine and Ten o'Clock at Night, George Taylor, Servant to the Right Honourable Edmund Burke, being on his Return from Woolwich to London, in a Coach, in Company with another Man and a Woman, was ſtopped on the Highway between Woolwich and Charlton, by Four Perſons on Foot, unknown, armed with Hangers, who robbed the ſaid George Taylor of Two Seals ſet in Metal; that on meeting with Reſiſtance from the ſaid George Taylor and his Companions, one of the Footpads ſtruck him on the Face ſeveral Times with his Hanger, whilſt he remained in the Coach; that upon the ſaid George Taylor's afterwards getting out of the Coach, he was again attacked by the ſame Footpad and Two others with their Hangers, and having received from them Twenty-five Wounds, Two of which, it is feared, are dangerous, they being alarmed, deſiſted from any further

further Attempts, and, as is supposed, crossed the River to the Red House on the other Side.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the Assault and Robbery abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who first wounded the said George Taylor in the Coach as aforesaid) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Edmund Burke doth hereby offer a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

Ed. Burke.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of the 16th Day of June last, the Opera House in the Hay-Market, in the City of Westminster, was discovered to be on Fire, by which the same was nearly consumed, together with the greatest Part of the Scenes, Decorations, Wardrobe and Furniture therein, to a very considerable Amount; and that there is great Reason to believe that the same was wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by some Person or Persons unknown.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in setting Fire to the said Premises, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually set Fire thereto) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me

J. A. Gallini.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Tuesday the 23d Day of December last, between the Hours of Five and Six of the Clock in the Morning, a most inhuman Murder was committed on the Body of John Matthewman, as he was going from his Dwelling-house at Crigglestone Cliff to Hollingthorp, both in the Parish of Sandal Magna, in the County of York; and that all Endeavours to discover the Person or Persons who committed the said Murder have hitherto proved ineffectual.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the inhuman Murder abovementioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually committed the said Murder) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered, to be paid at the Register Office at Wakefield, by Mr. Timothy Topham, Deputy Register, and an additional Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS, by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, Lord of the Manor of Wakefield, to any Person making such Discovery as abovementioned (except as is before excepted) to be paid respectively upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

Whitehall, July 10, 1789.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that a certain Order for Payment of Money, dated the 22d Day of September, 1788, with the Name of John Moore thereto subscribed, purporting to have been signed by John Moore, of London, Refiner, and directed to George Prescott, Esq; and others, of London, Bankers and Partners, by the Names and Descriptions of Messf. Prescotts and Co. for the Payment of the Sum of 700l. has been forged and counterfeited by some Person or Persons unknown; and that for uttering the said Order Jacob Canter has been tried and convicted:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Forgery, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually committed the said Forgery, and also except the abovementioned Jacob Canter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

W. W. GRENVILLE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Association of Bankers for discovering and prosecuting Forgeries, and other Frauds, do hereby offer a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discoovery as aforesaid (except as is above excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by me,

William Culverden,
Chairman of the Association.

John Newby, Sec.

Royal Hospital for Seamen at Greenwich,
July 14, 1789.

THE Commissioners and Governors of the said Hospital hereby give Notice, that at Salters Hall in London, on Wednesday the 20th Day of January next, or as soon after as conveniently may be, the undermentioned Farms will be let on Leases for Twenty-one Years, to commence upon the 12th Day of May next, viz. Salmon Field Farm, in the Parish of Hexham, and High Field East Farm, in the Parish of Bywell Saint Peter, both in the County of Northumberland.

All Persons, who may be desirous to take either of the said Farms, are requested to deliver, or send, their Proposals

Proposals in Writing to John Ibbetson, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, London, at any Time before the last mentioned Day; or, on that Day, between the Hours of Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon and One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Salters Hall aforesaid: And, for Particulars of the said Farms, to apply to Messrs. Walton and Turner, Receivers of the said Hospital, or to the Bailiffs in their respective Districts.

N. B. No Proposals received after the last mentioned Hour will be attended to.

To the Creditors of James Moore, late Banker and Underwriter in Glasgow.

JAMES HILL, Writer in Glasgow, Trustee on the Estate of the said James Moore, having already made two Dividends among the Creditors of the Bankrupt who proved their Debts of the Funds collected, one of Ten Shillings, and the other of Two Shillings and Six-pence Sterling per Pound; and having now recovered the whole Funds of the said James Moore in this Country that can be made effectual, hereby gives Notice, that on the 1st Day of August, 1789, he will make a Dividend of the Funds of the Bankrupt in his Hands among the Creditors; and as this will in all Probability be the last Division of Mr. Moore's Estate that will be made, the Trustee requests that such of the Creditors who have not already drawn Dividends will lodge their Claims and Grounds of Debt, with Affidavits to the Verity thereof, in his Hands, before the said 1st Day of August, with Certification that if they fail they will be deprived of any Share of the said Estate.

Lieutenant Richmond Fowke Griffith Webb.

IF Mr. Richmond Fowke Griffith Webb, who in the Year 1777 was the First Lieutenant of His Majesty's 40th Regiment of Foot, then serving in America, the only Son of the late Lieutenant Colonel Richmond Webb, be alive, his anxious Family most earnestly request his Presence on Affairs of Importance to himself and to them all; or if any Officer of the 40th Regiment, or any other Gentleman, can give any Information of Mr. Webb, so that his Family may be able to obtain Intercourse with him, it will render them great Comfort, and they will consider themselves under particular Obligations. Ill Health obliged Lieutenant Webb to quit his Regiment at New York, and he sailed from Kingston in Jamaica in June 1777 for Montego Bay. His Father, Colonel Webb, died the 27th of May, 1785, and Mrs. Webb, his Mother, on the 8th of June instant. Messr. William Thackeray and Peter Moore, of Hadley, near Barnet, Middlesex, two of the Executors of the late Mrs. Webb, will regard themselves particularly indebted for any Communication of or from Mr. Webb.

WILLIAM M. THACKERAY, P. MOORE, } Executors.

Hadley, June 23, 1789.

June 25, 1789.

THE Partnership between Thomas Sparrow and James Caldwell, of Newcastle under Lyme, in the County of Stafford, Attornies at Law, was this Day dissolved by mutual Consent: And all Persons indebted to the said Partnership are requested to pay their respective Debts to the said James Caldwell, who is authorized to receive the same, and to settle all Accounts belonging to the said Partnership. Witness the Parties Hands,

Tho. Sharrow.
Ja. Caldwell.

NOTICE is hereby given, That we Joseph Taylor, Thomas Haywood and John Lloyd, of St. Clement Danes in the County of Middlesex, Bricklayers, did, by mutual Consent, on Midsummer-Day last, dissolve our Partnership, and agree that each of us carry on Business in future on his own sole Account and Risque, and that each of us receive the Debts owing to the said Copartnership apportioned to him, but that the said Joseph Taylor pay all Debts due from us as Partners. As witness our Hands, this 9th Day of July, 1789.

Joseph Taylor.
Thomas Haywood.
John Lloyd.

THE KING, by His LETTERS PATENT, bearing Date the 9th of June last, has been pleased to grant unto William Sheward, of Birmingham in the County of Warwick, Needle-maker, His Royal Licence and Authority for the sole making and vending of certain NEEDLES, the Eyes whereof are finished and compleated in a Way superior to any yet invented, so as to prevent the Thread, Silk, or other Material used with the Needle from cutting, breaking and fraying, for and during the Term of Fourteen Years.
